TODAY'S GOSPEL READING

A prophet is not without honor except in his native place

The journey of faith begins at home. Our children watch us with innocent eyes, to see if the faith we proclaim is portrayed in our deeds. Carefully these little hearts observe to see if we truly believe in this Almighty God they've preached so loudly. And what will we show them? Do we trust Him to provide for our needs? Do we invite Him to participate in our family life? Do we spend time with Him daily? What evidence of our faith can our children see on the six days a week we're not in church? Before another day goes by ask yourself this vital question: Jesus found He was not honored in His own home - is He honored in yours?

VOCATION

There is a great need today to stand up for what we believe in. The Spirit of the Lord is upon you, He has sent you to bring Good News to the poor.

LIFE

That the right to life of every human being, from conception to natural death, will again be protected in our laws.

STEWARDSHIP

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'"

Ezekiel 2:2-3

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

To My Faith Family of St. Andrew's

Thank you, thank you, thank you for all of the support, prayers, and love over the years.

I can say with certainty that you have all had a role in shaping me into the person I have grown into.

Thank you for suffering through the rougher flute years, for always listening to me sing, and letting me work with your children and our adult choir.

I'm a better music teacher because of you.

God's Blessings,
 Abby Jurik
