Prepare and Share Freezer Meal Ministry

Do you know someone in our parish in need of support emotionally, physically, or spiritually? St. Andrew's "Prepare and Share" outreach ministers to those in need by delivering home-made meals to families and individuals for use when it works best for them. Please direct questions and referrals to Danielle Parenteau, danielleparenteau@yahoo.com, 701-212-3605, or Jane VanHavermaet, jane.vanhavermaet@gmail.com, 218-790-4530.

TODAY'S READING

There are a lot of reasons why people grumble. Many times, we forget our blessings and join the grumblers. Be it to hide from our own need for mercy, or to vindicate our narrow sense of justice, we miss the focus and stare at the sin instead of marveling at a love available to all of us. Far more than a story of a prodigal son, Jesus tells the story of a loving God. God's message of love is in danger of being lost on those who choose to grumble about the sins of others, rather than focus on God's phenomenal Love. Which do you see today?

STEWARDSHIP

*"Everything I have is yours."
(Luke 15:31)*

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do we really want to turn our backs on all that God offers in exchange for a material wealth that has no lasting value?

VOCATION

"He was lost and has been found." Do you want to bring others to life in Christ as a priest, deacon, religious sister or brother?

LIFE

For all whose hearts ache from participating in abortion, may they be strengthened to seek the Lord's compassion, mercy, and healing in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

GIFTS FROM PASTOR TOM OLSON – HLS

We hope you have noticed our beautiful new painting on the south wall near the south door of our gathering space. It is an oil on canvas of the Madonna and Child brought back from Africa by Pastor Tom Olson of HLS. He also gifted us with a crucifix carved out of mahogany wood by a friend from the Central Africa Republic. This is hung on the south wall of the gathering area as you come out of the sanctuary. A prayer bench of the same wood was also presented to us.

UPCOMING DATES

- Sun., Sept. 15 – Turkey Dinner
- Tues., Oct. 8, 7:15 p.m. – Pastoral Council Mtg.
- Sun., Oct. 20 – Turkey Dinner

TURKEY DINNER INFO – Information for the dinner was included in the September mailing. Families with last names beginning with A-L are to bring Salad (Ice cream bucket size) and names beginning with M-W bring Dessert (jelly roll size or 2 - 9x13 pans). Those on clean-up are listed on the information included in the September mailing. Everyone's help will be appreciated.

We welcome all law enforcement personnel regardless of their religious affiliation, from local police and sheriff's departments, the state patrol, and other agencies who serve the public to attend. A light reception and time of fellowship will follow Mass. A Blue Mass honors all those serving in public safety, and is named as such because of the color blue that has historically been worn by these men and women in service. The Mass and blessing is being held close to the time of the Feast of the Archangels because St. Michael, one of the Archangels, is the Patron Saint of police officers. All are welcome to attend!
