TODAY'S GOSPEL READING

Today's Gospel Reading There is no thirst of the soul so consuming as the desire for pardon. The sense of its bestowal is the starting point of all goodness. It brings with it, if not the freshness of innocence, still a glow of inspiration that nerves feeble hands for hard tasks, a fire of hope that lights anew the old high ideal, so that it stands before the eye in clear relief, beckoning us to make it our own. To be able to look into God's face and know with the knowledge of faith that there is nothing between the soul and Him is to experience the fullest peace the soul can know. Whatever else pardon may be, it is above all things admission into full fellowship with God.

STEWARDSHIP

"After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God...."

- Mark 1:14

Have you ever thought about how difficult it must have been for Jesus to go to Galilee, knowing that John had just been arrested for teaching the same message that He was proclaiming. It took great love and trust for Jesus to do what the Father had sent Him here on earth to do. In the same way, living a stewardship lifestyle takes great love and trust from us. We must be willing to surrender completely to God, trusting that He will always give us all that we need to fulfill His plan for us.

UPCOMING DATES

CHURCH IN CENTRAL & EASTERN EUROPE COLLECTION

Thank you for your generous contributions to the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe! As a parish, we collected $643.97 to restore the church and build the future in more than 25 countries. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give. Visit www.usccb.org/ccce.

THANK YOU

The family of Audrey Dauner would like to extend a sincere thank you for all the kindness shown to us after her passing. We appreciate all the people who helped make the funeral a fitting honor to her. Thanks to Sue Pederson who led the rosary, the musicians and eucharistic ministers who helped with the prayer service and mass, and to everyone who helped in some way. Thank you to those who made bars, and to all who helped serve food and cleaned up. Thank you to Father Augie and Deacon Tom for the beautiful prayer service, mass, and for your support. Thanks for all the memorials, including those for the stained glass fund. She was looking forward to that project getting completed. Thank you to the Tuesday/Thursday "after mass coffee group" for your friendship that meant so much to her. Finally, thank you for all the prayers that have held us up these last months as we have said goodbye to both parents. The support of St. Andrew's was a rock in Mom's life since its beginning, and continues to be for us. Audrey's family

Thank you so much

MY LENTEN NAIL

Lord Jesus,
You once suffered and died
For me nailed to a cross.
You endured much pain and suffering
Because of the great love
You have for all of us.
During this season of Lent
let me be reminded of the hidden suffering of the people
I meet day to day. Help me
To reach out to them with love,
Just as you reached out to me
from the cross.
Lord Jesus, let this nail be a reminder of Your love for me.
Amen.

Welcome! Our warmest welcome to all who worship with us. We appreciate your participation. If you would like to join our parish community, please fill out this form and place it in the collection basket or mail to our parish office.
