MATTHEW 5:16*

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people, and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. The more we recognize God's gifts, the more we want to share them. Good stewards recognize that God is working through them, and they don't put themselves above the people they have been called to help.

Today's Reading:

The readings today summon us to take a stand for God by taking a stand in support of others. We are told to shelter the oppressed and the homeless and to clothe the naked. These acts ultimately came to be referred to as the Corporal Works of Mercy: feed the hungry; give drink to the thirsty; clothe the naked; shelter the homeless; visit the imprisoned; tend the sick; bury the dead. According to Isaiah, if we do these things, our "light will break forth like the dawn." The Gospel reading does not list the works of mercy, but it does tell the people of Matthew's community, and us as well, that with the power of God we can transform the world. Like salt, our care of others will bring out the best of a world that has turned sour; like the radiance of a lamp, we can enlighten a world that is floundering in darkness. We can be a city set on a mountain for all to see, a refuge and safe haven in a world threatened by hatred and terror. Ours may be only a little light, but if each of us lets it shine, we can indeed make a difference.

The Pope's Monthly Intention*For children with incurable diseases

"We often think of Lent as a time of subtraction—giving up chocolate or coffee. But this year, I want to invite you to a Lent of addition."

We have created a project called 'The 40 Windows.' It is a simple, pocket-sized journal for everyone from age 4 to 94. Inside, you won't find heavy theology homework. You will find simple prompts to help you notice God in the dust, the wind, and the light of your daily life.

You don't need to be an artist. You don't need to be a writer. You just need to be willing to look. Please pick up your kit in the Gathering Space today. Take one for yourself, and maybe one for a grandchild or a neighbor, and let's walk these 40 days together."

The 40 Windows: A Lenten Sketchbook Journey For Ages 4 to 104

No Artistic Talent Required!

This Lent, trade the guilt trip for a field trip. We are inviting the entire parish to participate in a shared creative project using a simple Moleskine journal.

How it works: Each day of Lent offers a one-word "window" (like Roots, Shadow, or Water). Your task is simple: spend 5 minutes filling that day's page. You can draw it, paste in a photo, write a prayer, or simply smudge a little color on the page.

Why participate? Families: It's a perfect way to talk about Lent with children without a lecture. Adults: It's a tactile way to slow down and practice "Visio Divina" (Sacred Seeing).

Elders: It's a beautiful way to capture memories. More details to Come !!

Did you know? This helps them feel hunger and spiritually prepare to receive Christ in the Eucharist. This also includes gum, and one of the worst places to dispose of gum is under the Pews, as this shows disrespect for the sacred space and the community that gathers there. Catholics fast for at least one hour before receiving communion.

2026 DIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL: IN CHRIST, WE ARE ONE!

This year's Diocesan Annual Appeal (DAA) theme, "In Christ, We Are One", comes from Pope Leo XIV's motto and first homily as Pope, "Look to Christ!... Listen to his offer of love and become his one family: in the one Christ, we are one." Jesus prayed to his Father, "that they may all be one" (John 17:21), so that "the world may believe that you sent me." Our union with Jesus and each other witnesses to the love of God present in our world.

"We have much to do here in northwest Minnesota to live out Christ's mission, but we are not alone. Your gift to the DAA is a concrete expression of our unity, which strengthens our communion and helps the love of Christ reach every corner of our diocese." -Most Reverend Andrew Cozzens, Bishop of Crookston

Please give attention to an important mailing that will soon be delivered to your home. Complete the in-pew envelope today or make a gift online by using the QR code or visiting www.crookston.org/DAA.

This year, St. Andrew's DAA goal is $14,837.00

2026 Chrism Mass Preparations

The Diocese of Crookston is beginning preparations for the 2026 Chrism Mass, which will be celebrated on Monday, March 30, 2026 at Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Crookston. If you are interested in learning more about participating in this year's Chrism Mass choir, please contact Anna Kliner (akliner@crookston.org) for details about expectations, timelines, and next steps.
