STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION: - 4th Sunday of Easter

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." (Acts 13:52)

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to!

Today's Gospel Reading This fourth Sunday of Easter offers us the familiar image of the Good Shepherd, but with a peculiar twist. The usual picture shows the shepherd seeking what was lost or protecting his flock. Today the camera changes perspective and we look at the story from the eyes of the sheep. We are told that the sheep know the voice of the shepherd, that there is a very deep and personal relationship between the two. The sheep hear and know the special voice of the One who cares for them. This view of the Good Shepherd presents us with a challenge: How well do I know that voice? Do I give myself the opportunity to listen to it? Have I taken my relationship with the Shepherd for granted? God wants us to be in the closest of relationships with Him. But every relationship has two sides. How much do we give to make the relationship work? Perhaps it's time to listen and hear Jesus' voice call us once again.
