STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION: - 2nd Sunday of Lent

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared..." - Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

Today's Reading:

The Transfiguration of Christ is the culminating point of His public life, as His Baptism its starting point, and His Ascension its end. About a week after His sojourn in Caesara, Jesus took with him Peter, James and John and led them to a high mountain apart, where He was transfigured before their eyes. This dazzling brightness which emanated from His whole Body was produced by an interior shining of His Divinity. For the second time God the Father proclaimed Him His only-begotten and well-loved Son. By this glorious manifestation the Divine Master who had just foretold His passion to the Apostles and who spoke with Moses and Elias of the trials which awaited Him at Jerusalem, strengthened the faith of his three friends and prepared them for the terrible struggle of which they were to be witnesses in Gethsemane.

Pray with Pope Francis

March's intention is for the martyrs of our day. Let us pray that those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world might imbue the Church with their courage and missionary drive.

Retreat: April 4-6, 2025, Maryvale Retreat Center

No matter the circumstances, divorce always represents broken dreams and broken hearts. While much of the attention goes to the men and women trying to navigate the tidal wave of loss and hurt, often left in the wake are the children whose sense of security and identity have also been shattered. This can be true even for those who were already adults when their parents' relationship ended. Life-Giving Wounds is a new ministry to help adults who have experienced the breakdown of their parents' relationship, no matter at what age it happened and to allow Christ to bring new life through those very wounds. Find out more information or register for the retreat by visiting www.fargodiocese.org/lgw

BE NOT AFRAID! Of course, you don't have to have a faith crisis to attend a Koinonia retreat, some of us just like to meet new people and share our gifts and talents. Maybe that is what you like to do too. CENTRAL MINNESOTA KOINONIA is a Catholic retreat program sponsored by the St Cloud Diocese and designed for adults. The next weekend is scheduled for March 21-23, 2025, at the TEC Center north of Little Falls, Minnesota. Cost of the weekend is $70. Go to www.centralmnkoinonia.org for more information and to register for retreats.

Red Boxes

Red boxes mounted at the exterior of North and South entrance doors at the church are Fire Department key boxes. These boxes can only be opened by Fire Department, no other keys will fit these. If there ever should be a need by fire department to enter the Church, the key in the box will give them access.
